General

- All ponies must be registered or eligible for registration in the UK Shetland Pony Stud-Book.
- All ponies must be named on the entry form.
- Competing ponies must be the bona-fide property of exhibitors or held on a SPS-BS lease form, and must have been in their possession, on Shetland, for at least four weeks prior to the date of the show. Please ensure all transfers of ownership/lease forms are up to date as entries will be checked against SPS-BS records.
- Owners who have had ponies suffering from an infectious disease within six weeks of the show must not present any ponies for show.
- If any pony is suspected of or found to be suffering from an infectious or contagious disease or any other condition preventing it from being shown it must be removed from the show immediately at the request of the show committee or a vet.
- The Show committee reserves the right to amend, amalgamate, split or cancel any class and to replace a judge if necessary.
- Judging to commence at 11am prompt. Once judging of a class has commenced, no late arrivals will be admitted to the ring.
- Any objection must be made in writing to the Show Committee within one hour of the alleged incident, with a deposit of £20, which will be refunded should the objection be upheld.
- The decision of the Judge and the Show Committee is final.

Exhibitors

- Exhibitors' numbers will be available from the Secretary and the correct number must be displayed on the left arm of the handler at all times.
- Whips/show canes carried must not exceed 30" in length.
- All children under the age of 16 years must wear a hard hat while exhibiting.
- Colts of two years old or over must be shown bitted, no child under 14 years may be in charge of an entire male (excluding foals) in the ring.
- Please remember to return armbands and numbers before you leave.

Neither the Pony Breeders of Shetland Association Youngstock Show nor its organisers will be held liable for anything that may happen from any cause or circumstance whatsoever to any person, animal or property. It is a condition of entry that each exhibitor/competitor shall indemnify the show against any such matter aforesaid when signing their entry form.
